Helpful tips: Take the train, bus (free with VHB guest card), or the ship for your next garden visit. If you choose to visit by ship, this visit could look as follows:

Day 1 – First Mainau Island, than Garden Culture Path Überlingen

Day 2 – First Castle & Park Arenenberg, than Reichenau Island or 'Höri' gardens.

Take advantage of the BodenseeErlebniskarte (BEK) as 'Garden Card', for example the BodenseeErlebniskarte for 'Seebären', 3 days:

Day 1 – Meersburg New Palace and Salem Monastery and Palace

Day 2 – Hesse Museum Gaienhofen and Reichenau Island

Day 3 – Castle & Park Arenenberg and Mainau Island (to be paid)

Welcome to the Lake Constance Gardens

For centuries, hard-working gardeners have been sowing, planting and weeding at Lake Constance. From the castle grounds to the cottage garden, today there is row upon row of charming green oases spread across the Lake Constance. The parks and gardens allow their visitors to take an exciting journey through the epochs of garden culture – from the Stone Age to the present day, interspersed with some magnificent views of the lake.

2 | D-Reichenau Island

Almost 1,200 years ago, a monk from Reichenau, Walahfrid Strabo, wrote the first garden guide in Europe under the pseudonym of 'Hortulus'. In it he describes 24 medicinal plants and explains how they can be used. Today it is primarily tomatoes, cucumbers etc. that grow on the 'Vegetable Island', but in the former cloister garden an old-fashioned herb garden shows plants from Hortulus's guide.

7 | D-Meersburg New Palace

The baroque garden impresses with its great panoramic views on Lake Constance. He goes to the design Christoph Gessingers of 1712 back, who designed the plant in the French style had laid out on two terraces. He is an excellent example for that, a pleasure garden within a cramped space to design. The garden pavilion on the lower terrace is in the frame accessible by special guides.
