

Lake Constance travel pass, conditions of participation

By participating in the competition (Lake Constance travel pass) organised by Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH, every user accepts the following conditions. The user is obliged to consider and accept all details. The judges' decision is final; all information is given without warranty.

1. Organisation

The competition is organised by Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH, Hafenstr. 6, 78462 Constance, Germany (named IBT GmbH in the following).

2. Participants

This competition is open to all persons aged 18 or over. Employees of Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH or employees of companies affiliated with Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH as well as immediate family members of the aforementioned employees (including spouses or partners, parents, siblings, children or other people living in the household) are excluded from participating. The respective organiser reserves the right to check the identity and eligibility of the participants. Every person can only participate in this competition once.

3. Participation

This competition is valid between 01.01.2020 and 31.12.2020. The winner will be announced in January 2021.

Participation is dependent on the fully stamped Lake Constance travel pass (one stamp from each country) being submitted to Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH in person, by post or by e-mail. All company stamps of tourist information offices, hotels and destinations in the Lake Constance region are valid. The travel pass must be submitted within the deadline indicated. The participant is responsible for the accuracy of the information and e-mail address provided. All personal details must be truthful and accurate otherwise the participant may be excluded.

Participation is free of charge.

4. Prizes

The prizes are provided by partners of Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH. Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH declines all liability for the faults on merchandise. Additional services (e.g. outward/return journeys) are not included in the prize. All operating, ancillary and subsequent costs related to the prize will be borne by the winner. The prizes are personal and cannot be transferred. The judges' decision is final and no cash payment of the prize is possible.

5. Notification of the winners

The winners will be determined by lottery. The winner will be notified by Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH by e-mail. If no direct contact is possible within one week of the notification being sent to the winner, entitlement to the prize will be forfeited. In this case, a new winner will be drawn and the original winner loses all entitlement to the prize. By sending the prize, the risk of accidental loss passes to the winner. The names of the winners can be published in the web and print presences of Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH. The participant explicitly agrees to this form of publication.

6. Exclusion of participants

IBT GmbH reserves the right to exclude participants who make false or incomplete information, who use unauthorized aids that are suspected of tampering or otherwise violate the terms of participation, without stating reasons. If a participant is excluded, profits can also be subsequently revoked and reclaimed. The IBT GmbH reserves the right to ask the participant to comment on suspicion of an exclusion reason. If the statement is omitted within the deadline set by IBT GmbH, it reserves the right to exclude the participants from participation. Further reasons for exclusion are set out in Section 2.

7. Data protection

Responsible is:

Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH

When participating in the competition, IBT GmbH collects, processes and stores the following personal data of the participants:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Address data

The processing of this personal data is for the sole purpose of conducting, identifying and notifying the winners. If the mentioned data are not provided, participation in the competition is not possible. The legal basis for the processing of personal data in this competition is Article 6 (1) lit. a) and b) of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (DS-GVO).

The personal data of the participants are generally not disclosed to third parties, unless the provision of certain prizes is made via cooperation partners or other third parties. In this case, the IBT GmbH will transmit the contact details of the winner in the required sense to the respective partner, so that he can get in touch with the winner. Upon completion of the competition, the data will be deleted within 14 days.

Insofar as IBT GmbH processes personal data from you, you as the person concerned are entitled to the data subject protection rights in the general data privacy statement (right of access, right to rectification, right to delete, right to restriction of processing, right to information, right to data portability Right to object, right to revoke the data protection consent form, right of appeal to a supervisory authority).

8. Disclaimer

IBT GmbH assumes no responsibility for data loss, in particular those caused by data transmission, technical defects and lost, damaged or delayed entries due to network, hardware or software problems. Any warranty claims of the winners are excluded.

9. Changements

Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH can interrupt or end the operation at any time without prior notice and without giving any reasons for this decision if significant reasons prevent the proper implementation of the operation.

IBT GmbH is in particular entitled to discontinue, cancel or suspend the competition if

- An attempted manipulation is found
- proper operation is no longer ensured, especially in the event of hardware or software failure, program errors, computer viruses or unauthorized interference by third parties, as well as mechanical, technical or legal problems.

10. Final Provisions

The sole law applicable is the law of the German Federal Republic. If individual conditions of these conditions of participation are or become invalid, the validity of the remaining conditions of participation remains unchanged. Internationale Bodensee Tourismus GmbH is entitled to exclude submissions from participating which violate these conditions of participation, without giving any reason.

The legal process is excluded.

11. Consumer arbitration

We inform you that IBT GmbH does not participate in dispute resolution proceedings of a consumer arbitration board and is not obliged to do so.
